

HOLY WEEK AT HOME

During this time when we are practicing social distancing and remaining at home due to COVID-19, it is an opportune time to make Holy Week something special for the whole family.

“Holy Week is a time of Holy Waiting. We know we have something precious and beautiful, but we cannot yet see the completed picture. And so we must wait.”

This is an unprecedented time in our modern world, and it can be scary and lonely. We can easily become overwhelmed with anxiety and lose hope. BUT THERE’S GOOD NEWS: Your Catholic Church family is still here and still ready to help you connect to God and the Church.

“Keep your eyes fixed on the outstretched arms of Christ crucified, let yourself be saved over and over again. And when you go to confess your sins, believe firmly in his mercy which frees you of your guilt. Contemplate his blood poured out with such great love, and let yourself be cleansed by it. In this way, you can be reborn ever anew. Jesus’ Pasch is not a past event; rather, through the power of the Holy Spirit it is ever present, enabling us to see and touch with faith the flesh of Christ in those who suffer.”
