THANK YOU from FATHER DANIEL WHYTE

I wish to express an overflowing abundance of thanks to the people of Bangor Parish for the way they helped me enjoy so fully the jubilee of my ordination. Prayers, blessings, good wishes and gifts came my way from you; I was reminded of a few lines in Luke's Gospel (Luke 6:38)

"a good measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over"

Your generosity to me was exceptional and I'm at a loss in adequately responding to it. Please accept this poor expression of genuine gratitude from a thankful heart for a celebration that activated for me the joy of my youth when He first called me to follow Him. The remembrance of my diamond anniversary in Bangor will stay with me always.

God bless you. Daniel Whyte.

Your prayers are requested for

Angel Guardian

"Angel of God my guardian dear to whom God's love commits me here. Ever this day be at my side, to light, to guard, to rule and guide. Amen."

Thirteenth Sunday in the Year – 27 June 2021

Lord Jesus, you have said, 'Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you.' I come to you in faith and trust, in love and hope. Let me know your closeness to me and your care for me and for all who are dear to me.

My intention: Hear my prayer (mention intention); grant what I ask, and may I always trust that in all that happens in life, you will be close to me as my friend, guide and saviour. And so, Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

Penitential Act: I confess to the almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and
I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI

Prayer to the Most Holy Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
From the evil enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me to come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you
for age upon age. Amen

Knock Shrine offers virtual pilgrimages in unique times

Knock has always been a place of welcome, sanctuary and sacredness. Its role as Ireland's National Marian Shrine makes it a symbol of unity, family and togetherness. Since 1880, pilgrimage groups have made their way to Knock, bringing with them their prayers and petitions. Special pilgrimage Sundays have long been a central part of the annual calendar at Knock Shrine and the season traditionally begins on the last Sunday in April.

This year, as we continue to find ourselves in unique and challenging times, pilgrimage Masses will be broadcast online from Knock Basilica every Sunday at 3pm. Each weekend, there will be a special welcome for the pilgrimage groups that traditionally travel to our National Marian Shrine for their own celebrations.

Pilgrims are welcome to join the afternoon ceremonies from their homes. The schedule for the afternoon will include the praying of the Rosary at 2.30pm, followed by Mass and Benediction at 3pm. The celebrant will be Fr. Richard Gibbons, PP, Rector at Knock Shrine.

In advance of the day, pilgrims may place their petitions online on the Knock Shrine website and these will be placed on the altar for the Mass. Many pilgrims light candles for loved ones and their intentions during their visit to Knock Shrine and this service is also available online. A candle will be lit at the outdoor candelabra for each request received.

Daily Masses continue to be broadcast on the Knock Shrine website and Facebook page at 12 Noon and 7.30pm, with Rosary at 7pm. Sunday Mass is broadcast at 12 noon, Rosary at 2.30pm and Mass at 3pm. For further details, please see www.knockshrine.ie.

Aid to the Church in Aid

ACN Supporting Farah & her family.

The family of a Christian girl in Pakistan who was tethered with a rope and shackled round her ankles, are making a fresh start after a Catholic charity provided them with an auto-rickshaw.

The vehicle, funded by Catholic charity Aid to the Church in Need (ACN), will enable Asif Masih, the father of 12-year-old Farah Shaheen, to find work as a taxi driver.

The auto-rickshaw is part of a programme of aid after Farah was discovered physically restrained in the home of Khizar Ahmed Ali (Hayat), a man more than 30 years her senior, who kidnapped the girl before forcibly marrying her and converting her to Islam against her will.

Faisalabad District and Sessions Court in February ruled the marriage invalid and ordered Farah be allowed to return to her family.

Too poor to care for themselves and living in an area judged unsafe for them as Christians, by then Farah's family were in the care of a Christian group led by Bishop Iftikhar Indryas.

Thanking ACN for the rickshaw, Bishop Indryas said: "The aim of the rickshaw is to empower the family, to enable them to earn a living and avoid them having to be beggars."

He added: "The family are so happy to have the rickshaw. It is an important for them to have some degree of sustainability."

Farah's suffering made headlines around the world earlier this year after ACN carried out a media campaign, amid allegations that the police ignored her father's plea to trace his daughter and that, by the time they did find the girl, her torture had gone on nearly six months.

Neville Kyrke-Smith, National Director, Aid to the Church in Need (UK), said: "All of us were deeply shocked by what Farah and her family have had to go through – they have been so much in our thoughts and prayers.

"ACN's benefactors wanted to offer them help and support and what better way to win back confidence and independence."
