DIOCESAN TRUST

VACANCY SACRISTAN
BANGOR PARISH, BRUNSWICK ROAD, BANGOR, BT20 3DS

A vacancy has arisen for a Sacristan within Bangor Parish, where the responsibilities in the role will include:

✠ The maintenance of the sacristy where the church's liturgical items are kept including vestments, sacred vessels, and books etc.

✠ Ensuring that the sanctuary is set up for mass, other services, baptisms, and funerals, ensuring all the requisite books and sacramental vessels etc. are in place, and that afterwards the sanctuary is cleared, and the church is left secure and tidy.

The terms are based on a permanent appointment requiring 15 hours attendance each week, work pattern to be agreed. Ability to work flexible hours is required from the post holder from time to time.

Rate of Pay - £9.50 gross per hour.

Full details relating to the vacancy can be found on the Diocesan website at:

<http://www.downandconnor.org> clicking on the tab: JOB VACANCIES and on the Community NI website, where terms and conditions relating to the role can also be accessed by way of a Role Profile and Employment Application form. Application packs can also be obtained from the Parish Office.

We welcome applications from anyone who feels they meet the criteria and are interested in playing an active part in the Parish.

St Comgall's Parish Youth Club

As we emerge from the severest of the Covid restrictions the future of the Parish Youth Club needs to be examined. Finding and retaining qualified youth club personnel was already difficult pre-Covid, it is evermore so now.

So that legal safeguarding staff/child ratios may be achieved it has been necessary to reduce the club activities to two nights per week.

In order for the club to continue new volunteers are required. They must be at least 18 years old and prepared to be vetted.

If sufficient volunteers are not forthcoming the management committee will face the decision whether to mothball the club or close it. Your assistance is indispensable.

Please contact the parish office with your details if interested before 31st May 2022.

St Comgall's Parish Youth Centre is looking for enthusiastic youth workers to allow us to remain open.

If you are interested or know someone who might be have a look on JobsApplyNI website.

Applications close on 3 June 2022.

Pentecost Sunday – 5th June 2022

Lord Jesus, you have said, 'Ask and you shall receive, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you.' I come to you in faith and trust, in love and hope. Let me know your closeness to me and your care for me and for all who are dear to me.

My intention: Hear my prayer (mention intention); grant what I ask, and may I always trust that in all that happens in life, you will be close to me as my friend, guide and saviour. And so, Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in you.

Penitential Act: I confess to the almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and
I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI

Prayer to the Most Holy Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
From the evil enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me to come to you,
that with your Saints I may praise you
for age upon age. Amen

Nicaraguan bishop on hunger strike

MANY MEMBERS OF THE CLERGY IN NICARAGUA HAVE SUFFERED FOR THEIR OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT AND ITS POLICIES. IN MARCH, PRESIDENT DANIEL ORTEGA EXPELLED THE AMBASSADOR OF THE HOLY SEE.

By Filip d'Avillez

Bishop Rolando José Álvarez Lagos. (Credit: Aid to the Church in Need)

A Nicaraguan bishop began an indefinite hunger strike on Thursday, as a protest against police harassment. This is only the latest in a series of cases of persecution of the Church in the Latin-American country on the part of the regime, led by Daniel Ortega. In a video sent to Aid to the Church in Need (ACN), Bishop Rolando Álvarez, of the Diocese of Matagalpa, says he was followed by police all day on Thursday, including in the evening, when he went to have dinner at his niece's house.

The fact that this harassment was now also affecting family members is, he says, what led him to finally decide to take a stand and announce his hunger strike, subsisting only on water and saline solution. "At one point I asked the police why they were there, and they told me it was for my own safety. But we know that in this country insecurity comes precisely from the police, they were the ones making me feel unsafe", said Bishop Álvarez, who is also the apostolic administrator of the Diocese of Estelí.

"I will fast until such a time as the police, through the president or the vice-president of the Bishops' Conference, and only them, inform me that they will begin to respect the privacy of my family's circle", he said in the video which was sent to ACN.

Bishop Rolando José Álvarez Lagos. (Credit: Aid to the Church in Need)

Far from decreasing, however, the persecution intensified. On Saturday, 21 May, the Government ordered the Nicaraguan television provider to discontinue broadcasts of channel 51, the Church-run Canal Católico. Furthermore, on Sunday, 23 May, in another video sent to ACN, Bishop Álvarez, who has taken refuge during this time in the parish of Santo Cristo de las Colinas, in Managua, accused the police of having set up roadblocks to prevent priests from reaching the parish to celebrate mass with him, and of having prevented the faithful from attending Sunday Mass.

Catholics in Nicaragua and abroad have stood up for the local Church, and specifically its bishops, including the Bishops' Conferences of Panama and Costa Rica, which published statements of support for Monsignor Rolando Álvarez and for another priest, Fr Harvy Padilla, who has also been harassed by the authorities.

Bishop Rolando Álvarez is responsible for the Communication Department of the Bishop's Conference of Nicaragua and had spoken publicly about the situation in his country.

This is only the latest in a series of cases of persecution of the Church in the Latin-American country. The auxiliary bishop of Managua, Silvio Báez, had to leave Nicaragua in 2018 after receiving death threats, and many other members of the clergy have complained of police harassment as well. The tension between State and Church even led to the expulsion, in March, of the Apostolic Nuncio, the diplomatic representative of the Holy See, a decision which the Vatican labelled "painful".

In 2020 the Cathedral of Managua was attacked by arsonists, in what is considered a reprisal for the role has been played by the Church in promoting peace amid an atmosphere of political and social persecution, a move that was firmly condemned by ACN at the time.

In the preceding years, the Church had already made waves in the country by standing in solidarity with popular protests against the dictatorial regime. As one priest said to ACN, during a visit to the country in 2018, "I am one of the lucky ones. Many priests have been forced to flee. But we cannot remain unmoved when people burst in during Mass because they are killing them. Because the army and police are shooting to kill, aiming at people's heads, their backs and their chests."

"The Gospel teaches us that we must open our doors to those who are persecuted, and this is what we did. Our churches were turned into refuges, not into opposition planning centres, as the government claims", added the priest
