

Turas Columbanus/Columban Way

Turas Columbanus/Columban Way follows the pilgrim path of 7th Century Irish monk St. Columbanus. Born in the shadow of Mt. Leinster, he pilgrimed across Ireland to arrive in Bangor, Co. Down where he spent up to 20 years before going to Europe. He is an inspiration today for many Europeans.

National Heritage Week 2019

St. Columbans, Dalgan Park, Navan, Co. Meath

Photo Display of Turas Columbanus pilgrim & cultural route from Bunclody to Bangor & continental Europe. Images of Tara, Bective, Columban Way in France, Austria, Switzerland and Italy

Opening Times:

Sunday 18th August 100am -7.30pm

Monday, 19th - Friday 23rd August 10.00am - 1.00pm

Myshall Community Centre, Co. Carlow

Columbanus and the idea of Europe

Lecture “Making Europe - Columbanus and the idea of Europe” by Dr. Alexander O’Hara.

Pop-up exhibition:

St. Columbanus and Turas Columbanus/Columban Way

Monday 19th August 8.00pm

turascolumbanus@gmail.com